Comhaltas St. Patrick's Day Parade Float and Activities

The San Francisco St. Patrick's Day Parade is Saturday, March 14, 2015. One of the Honorary Grand Marshals of the Parade is our own Patrick Joyce RIP. Pat was always one of the first to come forward to help build our float and we will pay tribute to him this year. Please see messages below from Kasey and Connie regarding building of and participation in the float and help where you can. These two ladies put their hearts and souls into this effort. It is our branch and our responsibility (not to mention enjoyment) to help in whatever manner we can.

IT'S THAT TIME OF YEAR...The float needs to be built. Last year we had a great, large group come out to help so we got it done in record time!! PLEASE...if you came last year, come again!! If it's your first time lending a hand...welcome and it's great to have your help. Float construction: Friday, March 13th from 9am – 4pm (or whenever you can come). Location of Cunningham Moving and Storage is shown below with a map. We need all the hands we can get to help construct the float and then store it away again. Take down will be after the parade on Saturday, March 14th.
Thank you, Kasey Curtin

If you are interested in dancing in any of the performances or in the parade, please contact Connie Lynch at (707) 318-9200 or cerrydancer@juno.com ASAP. Note: must be a member of Comhaltas to dance in the parade. Again, parade date is Saturday, March 14, starting at 11:30am sharp, downtown San Francisco.

We will be joining the United Irish Societies to entertain at Laguna Home for the Infirm and Alma Via Rest Home on Sunday, March 8th. Contact Connie for info.

Cunningham Moving and Storage is at 1250 Van Dyke Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94124. Bus: Ingalls St & Van Dyke Ave. Contacts On Saturday, Parade Day: Connie Lynch: 707 318-9200; Josephine Brogan: 415 264-8856 Joannie O'Leary 415 279-7359; Kasey Curtin: 707 280-1235

Keeping ALL The Traditions Alive

Irish Culture is abound this time of year. In Comhaltas, we enjoy and promote music, song, storytelling, Irish language and dance. Another wonderful facet of Irish Culture is our Gaelic Games – football and hurling. We attended an event in February entitled “Celtic Idol”, benefiting the Irish Youth Hurling and Football League. We were blown away by the talent, organization and support of this benefit. Family and friends of the young boys and girls who play hurling, camogie and football came out to cheer on local singers who drew from the repertoire of Elvis, Christy Moore, Bruce Springsteen, and many more.

The participants were mentored and coached by CCE Member, Christy O’Connell, to an amazing level of entertainment. Hannah and Molly O’Connell and Caoimhe Lyons, (tin whistle and fiddle students of Comhaltas) joined with Molly Gorman, Emily Quinn and Lily Rogers to form their own band “MissFunktion!”. Previously having opened for Phil Coulter at the Irish Center in January, these young ladies proved to be well-able to entertain the “Celtic Idol” fans. Keep this event on your radar...we hope it will be an annual event.

The Irish Football and Hurling Youth League are preparing for what promises to be the busiest year in its twenty two year history. The IFHYL, started in 1994, is dedicated to promoting Gaelic Games for Bay Area children age 6 years to 18 years old. Many dedicated local volunteers teach our kids about the great games of Gaelic Football and Hurling. It has created a youthful Irish Community that brings young boys and girls together at a young age that allows them to celebrate their Irish Heritage and form friendships - from youth to adulthood.

In April the youth will be registering for the IFHYL sports league which will give our kids the opportunity to learn and play Gaelic games. Our under 14’s will be traveling to Ireland to participate in games with other under 14’s from across the globe. One of the team members is Cormac Lyons, a fine Comhaltas tin whistle and fiddle student.

On July 30-31 – August 1-2, the San Francisco IFHYL will proudly host the Continental Youth Championships. Our youth will be playing football, hurling and camogie with kids from all over the United States and Canada! You can look forward to seeing over 600 youth playing in the beautiful GAA fields at Treasure Island.

It is rewarding to see these ‘young ones’ celebrating all facets of their Irish culture. They deserve our support – keep an eye out for details of the continental Youth Championships coming to San Francisco and do volunteer and/or support however you can. This is how we Keep ALL the Traditions Alive!!

United Irish Society

The United Irish Societies is having a raffle. First and second prizes are an Aer Lingus round-trip tickets for 2 from San Francisco to Dublin; 3rd prize $500, 4th prize $350 and 5th prize $100. Drawing will be on April 15 at the UIS Delegates meeting. Tickets are $25.00 for one or $50.00 for 3. Be one of the lucky ones to win one of these prizes. See Connie Lynch or Cathy Mibach to purchase the “winning” ticket. You can reach Cathy at 415-753-0234 or Connie at 707-823-7378.

United Irish Societies is an organization of many Irish organizations of which Comhaltas is one. UIS is responsible for the St. Patrick’s Day Mass and St. Patrick’s Day Parade and the shows we dance in at 4 rest homes in San Francisco. All are welcome to join Comhaltas at all the March events sponsored by United Irish Societies. On Sunday, March 1, come join us at Veteran’s Home at 10am and St. Anne’s Little Sisters of the Poor at 2pm. The Irish flag will be raised over City Hall on Friday, March 6 and fly for the week until the Parade. On March 8, we will be at Laguna Honda at 10am and Alma Via at 2pm. Friday, March 13, we will be putting our float together at Cunningham’s Storage; we need workers to help us get it all together for the Parade. Saturday March 14 starts with Mass at 9am at St. Patrick’s Church at 3rd & Mission and the parade starts at 11:30 at 2nd & Market and ends at City Hall. A Festival will be held at City Hall Plaza from 11am to 5pm--so March is a very busy and exciting month for the Irish and especially for Comhaltas as we are involved in all the happenings.

After the parade there is a great corned beef and cabbage dinner at the Irish Cultural Center from 4pm to 6pm. Sunday, March 15, the Irish Center and Java Beach have a block party at 45th Avenue and Sloat Blvd. Comhaltas will be entertaining there also. So do come join in all these festivities; we’d love to see you.

Share the Joy Please Help with Member Outreach!

It's great to have new folks joining the dancing, but a lot of them don't even know that they could join CCÉ! If you are receiving and enjoying the Scéal Eile you are already a member -- think how much these newer folks would appreciate if you mentioned to them a little about CCÉ membership? Many don't know that CCÉ organizes and sponsors the dance lessons, the various dances at the UICC, the roster of callers at Thursday night dancing, the newsletter, classes and scholarships for kids, and much more. Please take a moment to mention CCÉ to the new folks at dance as we're sure they'd appreciate knowing how to get their own Scéal Eile! They can obtain Membership Forms online, or from Judy Forrest at dancing. Thanks!

St. Patrick's Parade Grand Marshal Dinner

Each year, prior to the parade, a dinner is held at the United Irish Cultural Center to honor the Grand Marshal and Honorary Grand Marshals. Cathy Mibach, Connie Lynch and all the committee work very hard to make this a great celebration and did a great job.

This year, Patrick Joyce, our dear member and friend who passed away in 2014 is being honored as an Honorary Grand Marshal. A lovely tribute was paid to Pat during the dinner by the United Irish Societies. A beautiful certificate designed by Nikki Ragsdale was presented by Kasey to Theresa, Sarah, Linda and Diane Joyce for a scholarship to our Irish Language Program in Pat's memory. Both native Irish speakers from the Aran Islands, Patrick and Theresa strove to keep the language alive.

Keep an eye out for photos on our website.
